

LEE BITSÓÍ

NOVEMBER 17, 2017

5:00 PM

FOUNDER'S ROOM

THE FIELD MUSEUM

Utilizing Cultural Dexterity in the Curation of Indigenous Exhibits

Please join us for a keynote lecture by Dr. LeManuel Lee Bitsóí, EdD, Chief Diversity Officer at Stony Brook University.

Dr. Bitsóí's work focuses on increasing opportunities for underrepresented students in scientific and research positions using indigenous epistemologies to help guide his work. He also conducts research on the bioethics of working with underserved communities and develops genomic research initiatives with indigenous researchers.

Please RSVP to ehayflick@fieldmuseum.org by November 10, 2017, and specify if you will need parking.

Please enter the museum at the South Doors.

Reception to follow in Sue Ling Gin Garden.

